Metro Credit Union Donates $10,000 to Chelsea Public Schools

Chelsea, MA. May 14, 2008 – Robert M. Cashman, president and CEO of Metro Credit Union, announced the donation of $10,000 to benefit the Chelsea Public schools.

In celebration of their new branch location at 365 Broadway in Chelsea, Robert M. Cashman, president and CEO of Metro, presented a $10,000 check to Dr. Thomas Kingston, Superintendent of Chelsea public schools at the new branch. Metro donated the funds to the Chelsea Education Foundation to support literacy programs.

“We are delighted to make this donation to benefit the Chelsea schools and to support the children of our community. One of our main goals is to provide support to the communities we serve by continuing to fund programs and services that improve the lives of people in our community.” said Robert M. Cashman, president & CEO of Metro Credit Union.
